* Fees are any charges, fees, commissions, prices, or other fees applied by UAB “Chronos Global” for the use of columis.com (Columis) services. Please note that your bank, debit or credit card issuer, or wallet service provider may also apply additional Fees. In addition, the respective blockchain may charge a so-called GAS Fee (i.e., a blockchain operational cost/transaction Fee applied for the execution of crypto-asset transfers or smart contracts). These Fees are variable and are not controlled by UAB “Chronos Global”. It should be noted that UAB “Chronos Global” does not, at its own discretion, determine the applicable Fees or final prices.

We also inform you that the prices displayed in the Columis application and website are indicative only. They may differ from the actual Order Execution prices and are provided for information purposes only, as they are obtained in real time from Columis Execution Venues and reflect only indicative (predictive) prices.
